

SUPPLY CHAIN INTERN

Are you eager to work with supply chain optimization – then you may be the next intern at Fredericia Furniture. We offer an internship position with a steep learning curve in a dynamic environment!

As a Supply Chain intern at Fredericia Furniture your tasks will primarily focus around an analysis of our existing supply chain, where we constantly aim to improve our efficiency. The tasks can be within logistics (warehouse and distribution), Procurement and Production & Quality, depending on ongoing projects and priorities. Other tasks will be of administrative character as support for the three supply chain areas.

We imagine that you

- study engineering, cand.merc. Supply Chain or similar
- are interested in working with supply chain challenges
- want to gain insight into the full value chain of a design company
- have an commercial approach
- have an analytical mindset
- are result oriented
- think and work independently but function in teams
- are good with numbers

How will you benefit for an internship at Fredericia Furniture

- Increased knowledge of supply chain
- Insight in the daily work routines at Fredericia Furniture
- Work in "real life" with deadlines
- Problem solving tasks

The position

The internship period is fulltime and starts end of August 2019 but flexible enough so it fits with your study schedule. The position is based in Fredericia
